

Whitby CPO

Funeral of Cst. Chris Garrett

| cover photos

A new police office was opened in Whitby in 2004. Chief McAlpine and Deputy Chief Mercier pose with Insp. Paul Carroll outside the new Whitby Community Police Office.

Over 350 members of the DRPS joined police officers from across Canada in Cobourg for the funeral of Cst. Chris Garrett, killed on duty.

Our Vision |

We are acknowledged as the leader in creating a safer community by providing quality police service.

Our Mission |

We ensure public safety by delivering excellent police service. We proudly work with all members of our community, and hold ourselves accountable to improved effectiveness in everything we do. We proactively address future challenges, while upholding our values.

Our Value Statement |

Every member of the Durham Regional Police Service is committed to providing quality service in partnership with our community. While learning from each other, we will achieve excellence through pride, respect, understanding and ethical behaviour.
