

Big Drug Bust: Project Merlin involved the largest single seizure of cocaine in the history of the DRPS – 24 kilograms, as well as cash and weapons. See page 8.

Upside Down: (photo courtesy of Metroland) Despite an increasing number of vehicles on the road and collisions, the number of injury collisions actually decreased in 2007. See page 9.

Highway of Heroes: Hundreds of citizens now join DRPS Officers along the bridges and ramps on Highway 401 in Durham Region to honour Canadian troops killed in operations outside Canada.

DURHAM REGIONAL POLICE SERVICE

Our Vision |

To have the safest community for people to live, work and play.

Our Mission |

As Leaders in Community Safety, we work proudly with all members of our community while holding ourselves accountable to improved effectiveness in everything we do. We proactively address future challenges while upholding our values.

Our Philosophy |

We are a problem-solving organization that, in partnership with our community, addresses the root causes of crime, fear of crime and anti-social behaviour.

Our Values |

Every member of the Durham Regional Police Service is committed to providing quality service in partnership with our community. While learning from each other, we will achieve excellence through pride, respect, understanding and ethical behaviour.
