Durham Region is located directly east of the City of Toronto and is one of five upper tier municipalities comprising the Greater Toronto Area.

Covering approximately 2,500 sq. km., Durham Region is geographically the largest Region in the Golden Horseshoe. The rolling terrain stretches from Lake Ontario in the south to Lake Simcoe in the North and from the Toronto boundary in the west to the Newtonville area in the east.

The topography features many active farms and one of the highlights of the landscape is the Oak Ridges Moraine.

- The member municipalities include:
- The Town of Ajax
 - The Township of Brock
 - The Municipality of Clarington
 - The City of Oshawa
 - The City of Pickering
 - The Township of Scugog
 - The Township of Uxbridge
 - The Town of Whitby

Message from the Chair of the Police Services Board

As you read through these pages and review the many activities of the Durham Regional Police Service in 2000, please keep in mind that the key to our success is our close connection to the community we serve.

From the streets of downtown Oshawa to the wide open spaces in Brock Township, our members need the close co-operation of community partners to ensure that local policing needs are met.

We will continue our efforts to ensure that the DRPS consistently meets and exceeds community expectations and that the citizens of Durham Region maintain their high quality of life.

The Durham Regional Police Services Board, as established pursuant to the Police Services Act of Ontario, provides civilian governance for the Durham Regional Police Service.

Due to its regional nature, the Act requires that five members sit on the Durham Regional Police Services Board.

The Act requires that the Board consist of:

Head of Council
(or his or her designate)
Bob Boychyn

Oshawa Regional Councillor

Member of Council
(appointed by resolution)
Doug Moffatt
Scugog Township Mayor

Person appointed by Council
(who is neither a member of the council nor an employee of the municipality)
Kevin Ashe

Two persons appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council
Jerry Moskaluk
